Women of the South, cloth

Why, bless me, here's something strange;
What can the paper mean
Be falking of the "graceful brooks
That gander o'er the green."
And here's a r instead of a,
Which makes if "lipping rill;"
We'll seek the "shad," instead of "shade
And "heli" instead of "hill."

"They look so"—what I recollect,
"Twas "sweet," and then 'twas "kin
And now to think the stupid fool,
For "bland" has printed "blind,"
Was ever such provoking work?
"Tis enrious, by the by,
Ilow anything is rendered "blink,"
By giving it an eye.

"Hast thou no fears," the r's left out,
"Hast thou no cars," instead,
"I hope that thou art dear," is put
"I hope that thou art dead."
Who ever saw in such a space
So many blanders crammed;
"Those gentle eyes bedammed,"
"Those gentle eyes bedammed."

The color of the "rose", is "nose,"
"Affection" is "affliction;"
I wonder if the likeness holds
In fact as well as fiction.
"Thou art a frend," the R is gone,
Who would have decided. That such a triffing thing could change A "friend" into a "liend"

"Then art the same," is rendered "lame!
It's really foo bad;
And here, because an is out,
"My bovely maid" is "maid."
They there her blind by poking in
An eye—a process new;
And now they we gonged it out again,
And made her crary, too.

"Where are the muses fiel, that thou Should st live so long unsung?" Thus read my version—here it is, "Should'st live so long unhung." "The fate of woman's love is thine." An a commences "fate," How small a circumstance will turn A woman's love to hate.

I'll read no more! What shall I do? I'll never dare to send it!— The paper's scattered far and wide— 'Tis now too late to meat it. Oh, Fame! thou cheat of human bliss! Why did I ever write? I wish my poem had been burnt. Before it saw the light.

Let's stop and recapitulate.
I've dam'd her eyes, that's plain;
I've told her she's a limatic.
And blind, and dead, and lame.
Was ever such a horrid hash

Legal. Order of Publi STATE OF MISSOURI. In the Lafavette County Provide Court, Ad May Term, A. B., 1866.

Mahetabel Wilkinson, ad-ministratrix of the estate of William & Wilkinson, dewilliam & Wilkinson, decased.

NoW at this day comes Mehetabel Wilkinson, administratrix of the estate of William S. Wilkinson, dec'd, and presents to the court her petition praying for an order for the sale of so muchof the real estate of said deceased as will pay and satisfy the remaining debts due by said estat's and yet unpaid for want of sufficient assets, accomplaned by the accounts, lists and inventories required by law in such case; on examination whereof it is ordered that all persons interested in said estate be notified that application as aforesuid has been made, and that unless the contrary be shown on or before the first day of the next term of this court, to be held on the 2d day of July next, an order will be made for the sale of the whole, or so much of the rual estate of said deceased as will be sufficient for the payment of said deths; and it is further ordered, that this notice be published in some newspaper in this court.

A true case, attest of Linchlet BURDEN.

A true copy, attest: ELDRINGE BURDEN, je 13-4t Judge of Probab THE CHAMPION Washing Machine, PATENTED BY J. R. TURBILL, JULY 12TH, 1864 I now in use, both for Cheapness, Durability and simplicity. It saves Labor, saves Soap, saves Fuel.

This machine is so arranged that it keeps all the hot steam and smell of the suds from rising up in the face, and nakes no slop on the floor. It is the lightest and most convenient muchine to handle manufactured, and at the same time is less liable to get out of order or break.

Every lady would do well to try the Champion before purchasing any other, as we know it to be without a competitor in all the requisites of a practicable, reliable Washing Machine.

No Washing Machine ever invented or introduced in the State of Missouri, has met with such universal success and favor.

What is more encouraging to the proprietor in, that the demand is greatest where it is best known, and it stands to day where it has ever stood, without a rival, both in the States of Missouri and Illinois.

We do not ask for certificates but place the me-

out a rival, took lines.

We do not ask for certificates, but place the machine entirely upon its own merits, feeling surthat the verdict of the intelligent housewife will
